RAIDERS HAVE IT ALL

By Mike Gallant

QUINCY — Good.

Good defense, good offense and a good kicker. If you live in North Quincy, you must know the above praise refers to your good old local high school football team.

There really isn't a heck of a lot more to say, what with the Red Raiders' 16-0 non-league win over Weymouth South on Saturday. The win puts Dave Burke's boys at 4-0 over-all and 1-0 in the Suburban League.

A few defensive names from Saturday would be Rich Kennedy, Steve Bonoli, Ed McElaney, Paul Corliss, Mark Nagle, John Ryan and Mark Wentzell. The offense was almost as crisp with John Wilkinson, Harry Knudsen, Dan Butts, Tom Nee, Keith Lindberg and Jim Frye.

"The whole defense played super," grinned 'D' coach Ken McPhee, who plans to rest his game ball on the family mantelpiece. "The secondary was strong enough to prevent them from throwing too many passes."

The Red Raiders began to show their strength on the opening drive of the game when they started at their 33 and moved down to the Wildcat one some 11 plays later. From there it was quarterback Brian Donaghey on a one-yard keeper and a 6-0 lead.

Neither team could then get anything going until midway through the second period when North moved to the Wildcat 18 before the drive stalled. McElaney's foot didn't and the soccer-style kicker kicked a 35-yard job to give the Red Raiders a 9-0 edge.

Looking back at the drive, you'll find that George Wallace and John Wilkinson did the bulk of the ball carrying. Wallace carried three times for 15 yards while Wilkinson, a junior runner who replaced injured Mike Adams, did 26 yards in four tries. "Wilkinson did a fine job," thought Burke. "Adams hurt his ankle early in the game but he should be okay for next week."

South mounted a neat 55-yard drive in the third period but Wentzell, who is quite a defensive end, put a finish to that with a sack of Manning. That was it for South but the Red Raiders weren't through yet. So, Wilkinson scored from 41 yards out with 33 seconds left for the final 16-0.

''NORTH RACKS UP 9th''

North Quincy's red hot soccer team, unbeaten in seven straight games, played at Suburban League-leading Newton North Tuesday, and will host Quincy today (Thursday).

The Raiders will be at Rindge Tech Saturday at 10 a.m. and will be home to Weymouth South Tuesday as it hopes to qualify once again for the state tournament.

Bruce Cochrane's first Raider team ran its record to 9-3-1 last Friday with a 2-1 win over Waltham. In qualifying for the tournament, ties count as wins.

North overcame a 1-0 deficit with third period goals by John Dolbec and Jim McGinley. Bob Reed assisted on Dolbec's goal and Dave Harrow set up that by McGinley.

Earlier in the week North had played to a scoreless tie with Brookline, in a game dominated by the goalies. Both teams had good scoring chances but were foiled by some outstanding saves.

In their previous game the Raiders had blanked Weymouth North, 2-0, on goals by Jim McGinley and Harrow. Sean Jago and Bob Stack had assists.
